NOTICE.—The Great Northern Railway Company having, for the convenience of the public, made "through booking" arrangements with the other Railway Companies over whose lines and by whose boats the Tickets announced in this Programme, entitle the holder to travel between the points stated thereon, hereby gives PUBLIC NOTICE that such through Tickets are so issued by the Great Northern Company, subject to the following conditions:—

- 1st. That the use of the Tickets is to be evidence of an agreement between the purchaser and the several English Railway Companies concerned, that they are not, jointly or severally, responsible for any variation in the times appointed for the departure, progress, or arrival of their respective trains or boats, or of the trains or boats of any other Company in connection therewith; nor for any loss, inconvenience, or injury, pecuniary, or otherwise, that may result to a passenger in consequence thereof.
- 2nd. That the English Railway Companies, each respectively, incur no responsibility of any kind whatever, either to person or property, for accident, detention, or any other circumstance, arising or happening on the lines or boats of any other Company than its own, and that as respects passengers' luggage or property no responsibility shall be incurred, under any circumstances, beyond the sum of £10, and to this extent only when the passenger shall have complied with all the duly authorised bye-laws and regulations of the English Companies respectively.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

The Tickets are not Transferable, and they will not be recognised for the Return Journey unless they have been presented and stamped at the Booking Office of the Station named thereon on the day of return.

The Tickets, except where otherwise specified, are available by any Train (excepting the Limited Mails on the London and North Western Line, in the case of the Tickets announced on pages 8, 9, & 10), but the Company do not undertake that the Trains shall start or arrive at the times shown in the Tables, nor will they be accountable for any loss, inconvenience, or injury, which may arise from delays or detention.

The Tickets, unless when otherwise specified, are available for one calendar month; for example, a Ticket taken on the 15th of one month is available for return on any day up to and including the 15th of the following month. A Ticket taken on the last day of any month is available for return on any day up to and including the last day of the following month. The holders are, in all cases, required to complete their Return Journey on the day the Tickets expire.

Unless when otherwise stated, these Tickets are not available for any but the Stations named upon them, nor can they be used more than once in the same direction, and they do not entitle the holders to break their journey at any other places than those specified. Passengers must in all cases start upon the Outward Journey on the same day that the Tickets are purchased.

In all cases where Passengers are allowed to break their journey at any place for one night, they must resume it not later than noon of the following day; but Passengers breaking their journey at any place on Saturday may stay over Sunday, proceeding to their destination not later than noon on Monday.

Attention must be paid by the Holders of these Tickets, on the Outward Journey, to see that the right half of the Ticket for the Return Journey is retained by them.

The Company do not hold themselves liable to make any return to Passengers, who, by neglect, or from any other cause, fail to produce their Tickets when required.

The usual weight of Luggage, except where otherwise specified, will be allowed to each Passenger, and care should be taken to have it properly addressed, and, at the starting point, labelled to its destination.

Children under Three years of age, Free; above Three and under Twelve, Half-fares, except where otherwise specified.

Tourist Tickets used in contravention of the foregoing conditions and regulations will subject the holders to forfeiture of the same, and to the payment of the full ordinary fares between the starting and terminating point named on the Tickets.

Extension of Tickets.—Passengers holding First and Second Class Tickets wishing to defer their return for a longer period than One Calendar month, can do so (except where otherwise specified) by paying 10 per cent. on the price of the Ticket for the first fortnight, or portion of a fortnight additional; and 5 per cent. more on the price of the Ticket for each week, or portion of a week, after the first fortnight; but the time will in no case be extended beyond the 31st December, 1903. Applications for extension of Ticket must be made by letter or in person at the Station from which the Return half is available, in all cases not later than on the day on which the term of the Ticket expires.

TOURIST TICKETS FROM INTERMEDIATE STATIONS.

NOTICE.—Families residing near to Stations on the Great Northern Railway, at which Tourist Tickets are not issued, may, by giving 24 hours' notice at the nearest convenient Station to their residences, have Tickets (Third Class to Scotland excepted) obtained for them to any of the Places named in this Programme, on payment of the additional fare from the Station at which they start to that from which the Tourist Ticket is available.

PIC-NIC AND PLEASURE PARTIES.

During the Summer Months and until 31st October, First, Second, and Third Class RETURN TICKETS AT ONE FARE FOR THE DOUBLE JOURNEY will be issued between certain Stations to Parties of not less than Six First Class, or Ten Second or Third Class Passengers, desirous of taking Pleasure Excursions to places on or adjacent to this Railway.

The Tickets will be available for return on the same day only, and parties can only proceed and return by Trains which stop at the Stations where they wish to join and leave the Railway, and having the class of Carriage attached for which they take Tickets.

To obtain these Tickets, application must be made by letter, not less than three days before the Excursion, addressed "To the Superintendent of the Line, King's Cross," or "To the District Superintendents" at the following Stations, viz.:—King's Cross, Hatfield, Grantham, Boston, Nottingham and Leeds, stating the following particulars, viz.:—

That it is exclusively a Pleasure Party; the Station from and to which Tickets are required; For which Class of Carriage; The Date of the proposed Excursion; and, The probable Number of the Party.

The power of refusing to grant any application, or of declining to allow the Tickets to be available by particular Trains, is reserved. If the application be entertained, an authority will be sent to the applicant in course of Post, or otherwise, on delivery of which to the Clerk in Charge at the Station, the Tickets will be issued.

These Tickets will not be issued to London, or Stations within 10 miles of London, except for School Children and in special cases, neither will they be issued from London to any Station more than 30 miles distant.

CRYSTAL PALACE, SYDENHAM.

Pleasure and School Parties can now be arranged from Stations on the Great Northern Railway to the Crystal Palace, at Low Fares, including Admission, which can be ascertained on application to the Superintendent of the Line, King's Cross.

Parties are conveyed in both directions, via the Metropolitan, and London Chatham and Dover Railways, to and from the Crystal Palace High Level Station, which is close to the entrance to the Building.

* Tourist Tickets for Perth and Stations north thereof, are issued via Granton and Burntisland by the Forth Ferry route, and also via Larbert and Stirling; and Tourist Tickets to Inverness, Keith, and Elgin are issued either via Dunkeld and Blair Athole, or via Aberdeen. Passengers must state at the time of booking which routes they select.

First and Second Class Tourists' Tickets are issued by the Down Trains leaving King's Cross at 9.0. and 10.0 a.m., and 9.15 p.m. Third Class Tourists' Tickets are issued only by the Train leaving King's Cross at 9.15 p.m. First and Second Class Tourists' Tickets are also issued by the Down Trains leaving King's Cross at 12.0 noon and 5.25 p.m., but as these Trains do not run beyond Newcastle, Passengers will have to break their journey there, or at York. Tourists cannot be conveyed beyond Glasgow by the Train leaving King's Cross at 9.15 on Saturday evenings.

First and Second Class Tourists' Tickets are available for Return by the Up Trains leaving Edinburgh at 10.20 a.m., and 2.10 and 10.15 p.m.; and Third Class Tourist Tickets by the Trains leaving at 2.10 and 10.15 p.m. only.

Passengers may break their journey at York or Newcastle, both in going and returning, resuming it by Trains having Carriages attached corresponding to the Class of Ticket held. Passengers to points beyond Edinburgh may also break their journey either at Edinburgh or Glasgow, and at Perth. They are, however, not at liberty to break their journey both at Edinburgh and Glasgow, but at only one of those places. Passengers to Aberdeen may also break their journey at Forfar, Brechin, and Montrose. Passengers to Inverness, Keith, and Elgin, booked via Dunkeld and Blair Athole, may break their journey at any station on the Highland line between Perth and Inverness, and those booked via Aberdeen may break their journey at Aberdeen or any station north thereof.

Extension of Tickets.—Passengers holding First and Second Class Tickets wishing to stay at any of the above places for a longer period than One Calendar Month, can do so on the terms and conditions mentioned on page 3. This arrangement does not apply to Third Class Tickets.

Leeds Fine Arts Exhibition.—Holders of these Tickets have the privilege of travelling by Great Northern Railway to Leeds, and breaking the journey there, to enable them to see the Exhibition, resuming it by any North Eastern train from Leeds (Wellington Station) for either York or Thirsk having carriages attached corresponding to the class of ticket held, and joining the through East Coast trains for Scotland at one or other of those places. In like manner Passengers with these Tickets returning from Scotland may travel by any train of the North Eastern Company from either Thirsk or York to Leeds, and may break their journey there, resuming it by any train of the Great Northern Company from Leeds (Central Station) having carriages attached corresponding to the class of ticket held.

Tourist Tickets are issued from the above and other principal Stations in Scotland to London at similar fares and under similar conditions. For particulars see page 5.

TICKETS ARE ISSUED AT EDINBURGH, GLASGOW, AND MELROSE STATIONS FOR EXCURSIONS THROUGH SCOTLAND.

Tourists' Tickets for Perth and Stations north thereof, are issued via Grant and Burntisland by the Great Ferry route and also via Leith and Stirling. Tourist Tickets to Inverness, Keith and Elgin are issued either via Dunkeld and Blair Athole, or via Aberdeen. Passengers must state at the time of booking which route they select.

First and Second Class Tourist Tickets are issued by the Down Trains leaving King's Cross at 9.0 and 10.0 a.m., and 9.15 p.m., and from the Stations at which these trains do not stop, by the trains immediately preceding them, so as to enable passengers to join them at the next stopping station. First and Second Class Tourist Tickets are also issued by the Down Trains leaving King's Cross at 11.0 a.m. and 4.45 p.m., but as these trains do not proceed further than Newcastle, passengers will have to break their journey there, or at York. Tourist Tickets cannot be conveyed beyond Glasgow by the train leaving King's Cross at 9.15 on Saturday Evening.

First and Second Class Tourist Tickets are available for Return by the Up Trains leaving Edinburgh at 10.30 a.m., 3.45, and 1.15 p.m. Passengers for Stations at which these Trains do not stop must alight at the nearest stopping station or Junction, and proceed to their destination by the next train.

Passengers may break their journey at York or Newcastle both in going and returning, resuming it by Trains having Carriage attached corresponding to the class of ticket held. Passengers to points beyond Edinburgh may also break their journey at Edinburgh or Glasgow and Perth. They are, however, not at liberty to break their journey both at Edinburgh and Glasgow, but at only one of these places. Passengers to Aberdeen may also break their journey at Forfar, Brechin, and Montrose. Passengers to Inverness booked via Dunkeld and Blair Athole, may break their journey at any Station on the Highland line between Perth and Inverness, and those booked via Aberdeen, may break their journey at Aberdeen or any Station north thereof.

Passengers from stations on the Great Eastern Railway join the Great Northern at Peterboro', where they have also the option of breaking their journey by staying one night, both in going and returning. The Great Northern Company's Hotel adjoins the Peterboro' station, and is under the management of the Company.

EXTENSION OF TICKETS.—Passengers wishing to stay at any of the above places for a longer period than One Calendar Month can do so on the terms and conditions mentioned on page 2.

LEADS FINE ARTS EXHIBITION.—Holders of these Tickets have the privilege of travelling by Great Northern Railway to Leeds, and breaking the journey there, to enable them to see the Exhibition, resuming it by any North Eastern train from Leeds (Wellington Station), for either York or Thirsk, having carriages attached corresponding to the class of ticket held, and joining the through East coast trains for Scotland at one or other of those places.

In 4th class, passengers with these tickets, returning from Scotland may travel by any train of the North Eastern Company from either Thirsk or York to Leeds, and may break their journey there, resuming it by any train of the Great Northern Company from Leeds (Central Station) having carriages attached corresponding to the class of ticket held.

Holders of these Tickets travel south of London by the Great Western Railway, from Paddington Station. They are at liberty to break their journey, both in going and returning, by remaining one night in London, proceeding to their destination the following day. Passengers to Weston-super-Mare may break their journey also at Bath or at Bristol. Holders of Tickets to Penryn, Falmouth, or Penzance, may also break their journey at Plymouth or Truro. The above fares do not include the cost of conveyance between the Stations in London.

See page 3 for General Conditions.
